

Putting music at the heart of Bristol life

Bristol Beacon Freelance Music Practitioner – Application Procedure

Project role: Bristol Beacon Freelance Music Practitioner

Contract status: Freelance (self-employed)

Hours: To provide services as required (please note there is no guarantee of work)

Rate of pay: £25.25 per hour

Next steps:

You should ensure that you have read the Freelance Music Practitioner Project Brief before completing the application process. To apply you will need to submit the following:

- Your current CV
- A Freelance Music Practitioner Application form
- An example of a lesson plan you use in your teaching
- Equal Opportunities Monitoring Form

Please feel free to provide references and testimonials from previous assignments that you have undertaken in addition to the reference contact details provided in your application. Please note that we may take up this reference prior to short-listing.

The application process is designed to ensure the high quality of our music education provision, and enable us to shortlist suitable service providers. If selected you will be invited to attend an interview and provide a demonstration of your teaching and playing ability within an education setting. Successful applicants will be required to complete a skills audit questionnaire detailing their range of expertise in musical tuition and group facilitation across various settings and age-groups. This will enable us to identify project work most appropriate to your skill set. You will also be asked to provide evidence of the qualifications, skills and experience you have outlined on your application and CV.

Please note that the application documents are confidential and will normally only be seen by those who need to see them in order to recruit and select.

If you require our application form in an alternative format i.e. large print, or require any other support or reasonable adjustments, please contact People Management/HR hr@bristolbeacon.org

- Reasonable adjustments will be made for applicants if required.
- Disabled applicants who meet the minimum essential criteria for the role, will be offered an interview.

Bristol Music Trust is committed to Equal Opportunities.